

Thinking about Studying Abroad?

Did you know that we can transfer the federal funds you are eligible to receive at Bennington directly to your host school? The following information will help you to determine if you should complete a consortium agreement.

Once approved to study abroad a student's financial aid will be placed into one of these categories:

- Leave of Absence - indicates the student is enrolling elsewhere, is not taking any financial aid with them, will transfer credits back to Bennington after they return.
- Exchange – student is at an approved institution as an exchange student where we have an existing contract. Student appears to be enrolled at Bennington, is billed by Bennington, and is eligible for institutional aid.
- Consortium – student has funds in their financial aid award that are “transferrable.” They enroll elsewhere for a term and we disburse their financial aid fund at Bennington, later refunding the money to help the student pay for expenses. Institutional aid and some funds are not eligible as noted below.

The following funds are transferrable with a complete Consortium Agreement:

➤ Federal Direct Subsidized Loan	YES
➤ Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan	YES
➤ Federal Pell Grant	YES
➤ Parent’s PLUS Loan	YES
➤ State Grants	YES
➤ Student’s Private Loan	YES
➤ Federal SEOG Grant	SOME
➤ Outside Scholarships	MAYBE

The following funds are not transferrable:

➤ Work-Study	NO
➤ Bennington Scholarships	NO
➤ Bennington Grants	NO

Do you have transferrable funds in your financial aid award?

Apply for financial aid just as you would if you were studying here for that term. Submit Parts I, II, and III of the Consortium Agreement, we will adjust your costs for attending the host institution and the increased cost for travel, then we will recalculate your financial aid eligibility. Funds will be disbursed on the first day of Bennington’s term, provided all of your application and consortium documents are complete including Part IV of the consortium agreement confirming your full-time status.

Consortium Checklist

- Confirm that you meet the requirements for a Consortium Agreement. You must be a federal student aid recipient or have outside funding that will transfer to a host institution. Students who receive only Bennington assistance such as Brockway or Bennington Grant should apply for a leave of absence. Transferrable funds include: Federal Direct Student Loans, Parent Federal PLUS Loan, Federal Pell Grant, State Grants, Student's Private Loan, Some Federal SEOG Grant and Some Outside Scholarships. Bennington's institutional aid, work study, and some other funds are not eligible.
- Obtain a "Consortium Agreement" from the Forms tab on My Financial Aid or stop in the Bennington Financial Aid Office.
- Make an appointment to meet with Amy Starr in Financial Aid to discuss your Consortium Agreement and aid.
- Acknowledge the deadlines. It is the student's responsibility to get the necessary signatures on the Consortium Agreement and make sure that it is returned on time – May 1st for fall study and November 1st for spring study.

Completing the Agreement

- Read page one, sign at the bottom to verify that you understand the conditions and expectations during a consortium term.
- Meet with Student Billing to verify that your account is paid in full. Obtain signature on pg 2 of Consortium agreement.
- Meet with the Study Abroad Coordinator in the Dean's Office to verify that you are in good academic standing, that the program has been approved as part of your Plan, and the credits will transfer back to Bennington. Obtain signature on pg 2. Return pages 1 + 2 to Amy Starr in Financial Aid.
- Send pages 3 + 4 to the host institution to verify the expected budget for the term on pg 3 and verify full-time enrollment on pg 4. Make sure you have the name, address and phone of the administrator who works with visiting students in your chosen program at the host institution.
- Follow up with the host institution to return pages 3+4 to Bennington Financial Aid Office before November 1st for spring term and May 1st for fall terms abroad. Check with Financial Aid before the end of the prior term to be sure everything is in order to disburse the expected financial aid when the term begins.
